CFMA's IT Survey Ranks eCMS As No. 1 Job Costing/Accounting/Payroll Software
Companies with $250 Million and Higher in Revenue Utilize Computer Guidance for their Financial Management Needs

Scottsdale, Arizona – March 18, 2010 – Computer Guidance Corporation, the leading developer of financial and project management software solutions for architecture, engineering and construction companies, ranks as the No. 1 job cost, accounting and payroll solution provider for commercial contractors with revenue of $250 million and higher according to the CFMA's 2010 Information Technology Survey For The Construction Industry.

CFMA's 2010 Information Technology Survey For The Construction Industry represents the most comprehensive, regularly updated information technology (IT) survey in the construction industry with twelve distinct software categories broken down by revenue size and contractor type. With over 322 companies completing the questionnaire in 2010, the CFMA's 2010 Information Technology Survey For The Construction Industry represents the largest continuous sampling of IT patterns and a valuable source of information on IT solution trends in the industry.

Computer Guidance's CMS/eCMS Construction Management System has been ranked as the No. 1 job cost, accounting and payroll software solution for large commercial contractors with a revenue of $250 million and higher in North America by the CFMA biennial IT Survey for the past four years. Per the survey, Computer Guidance serves 21% of all commercial contractors with revenue of $250 million and higher, and specifically 25% of general contractors and 29% of specialty contractors in this category. In addition, Computer Guidance's solutions are used by 36% of specialty contractors with revenue between $101 and $250 million.

"We are pleased to be recognized as the top job costing, accounting and payroll solution provider once again for companies with revenue of greater than $250 million." stated Roger D. Kirk, President/CEO, Computer Guidance Corporation. "This position represents the confidence that commercial construction companies have in our solutions and services year after year."
