Computer Guidance Welcomes New Customer
Grace Industries Purchases eCMS® Solution

Scottsdale, Arizona – September 21, 2010 – Computer Guidance Corporation, the leading developer of financial and project management software solutions for architecture, engineering and construction companies, today announced that Grace Industries LLC, part of the The Haugland Group family of companies, has selected eCMS v.3.7.0 for its financial, project and heavy equipment management needs.

“We were looking for an all-encompassing solution to manage our unique business operations from heavy highway construction to property management. We needed a solution to integrate the finance and project sides of our operations while managing all of our assets, including equipment, property and human resources.” stated Jay Able, Director of Information Technology, Grace Industries LLC.

Grace Industries was founded in 1952 and the company continues its decades-old focus on heavy infrastructure construction, including roads, highways, bridges, tunnels, airport runways and site construction, in the New York City area and across the Northeast.

“We chose Computer Guidance’s eCMS fully integrated construction management solution as it provides us with a complete application suite without the need for customizations.” stated Ariel Hazelton, Accounting Manager, Grace Industries LLC.

“Companies like Grace Industries understand the value of an integrated solution that provides greater control and increased productivity” stated Roger D. Kirk, President/CEO, Computer Guidance Corporation. “We look forward to continuing our relationship with Grace Industries as we help them to achieve their financial and project goals through the implementation of eCMS.”
