Moretrench Implements Computer Guidance's Cloud-based Construction ERP Software

Long-term Customer Goes Live on Computer Guidance's Hosted eCMS v.4.0

Scottsdale, Arizona – August 19, 2015 – Computer Guidance Corporation, the leading developer of ERP software solutions for the construction industry, today announced that Moretrench has upgraded to Computer Guidance's industry-leading, cloud-based ERP software—eCMS v.4.0. Moretrench is a 100% employee-owned geotechnical contractor, with over 100 years of experience and unparalleled expertise in underground construction.

With their recent eCMS v.4.0 upgrade, Moretrench gained an integrated suite of applications to support its complex underground construction business including core financials, job costing, equipment accounting, payroll, human resources, human resources self service, time and material billing, purchasing, enterprise content management and business intelligence.

"We became a client of Computer Guidance in 1998 and we value our partnership," said Todd Andrews, Treasurer of Moretrench. "CGC's ERP solutions have grown and adapted with our business needs and the functionality that eCMS v.4.0 offers is both exciting and powerful."

Moretrench has been a Hosted eCMS customer since 2010, leveraging Computer Guidance's fully integrated, enterprise-class ERP solution in a managed, secure cloud environment with guaranteed availability.

"We chose Computer Guidance's cloud-based offering about 5 years ago and it has proven to be the right decision for our organization," stated Andrews. "With Hosted eCMS, we enjoy a flexible software model that has been financially and operationally beneficial. With the cloud-based deployment, we are able to focus on what matters the most – our customers and projects – and we let our trusted provider handle the management of our ERP system infrastructure behind the scenes."

"We are pleased to renew and grow our partnership with Moretrench," commented Andrew Grasso, Account Manager, Computer Guidance Corporation. "CGC is committed to continue to provide our customers with the flexibility their businesses require, both in software functionality and software deployment methods. With Hosted eCMS v.4.0, Moretrench capitalizes on cutting-edge functionality while benefiting from automated and ongoing system maintenance and enhancements delivered by our team."
