Wright Service Corp. Goes Live with Computer Guidance eCMS v.4.0 ERP
Industry's Most Advanced Business Intelligence Application Suite, Innovative Web 2.0 Capability, Enterprise Content Management in Addition to Proven Core Applications for Smarter Business Operations

Scottsdale, Arizona – October 27, 2015 – Computer Guidance Corporation (CGC), the leading developer of enterprise resource planning (ERP) solutions for the construction industry, announced that Wright Service Corp. has successfully gone live with the implementation of CGC's eCMS v.4.0 ERP system.

Wright Service Corp., a prominent leader in several environmental services industries across the country, has implemented eCMS v.4.0 ERP to gain better control and insights of their financial and operational performance.

The implementation included eCMS core accounting and financial applications, human resources, payroll, purchasing, job costing, time and material billing, equipment accounting, equipment maintenance, and a variety of productivity tools such as enterprise content management, business intelligence applications and more.

"Computer Guidance's ERP solution is critical to support our growth and unique business needs," said Terry McGonegle, chief financial officer of Wright Service Corp. "We value the flexibility that eCMS applications provide allowing us to offer inimitable services tailored specifically to our customers' need. Furthermore, we recognize that data-driven management is the only way we will capitalize on our market value."

"We are pleased that Wright Service Corp. can now leverage the powerful features that our eCMS v.4.0 has to offer," stated Penny Muzzy, Manager of Professional Services of CGC. "The Wright Service Corp. and CGC teams worked well together to deploy our proven and rock solid ERP platform that will continue to serve t well as they grow and drive efficiencies for their one-of-a-kind businesses."
